

SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT (SCM) & PROCUREMENT

Lauren specializes in offering comprehensive supply chain management (SCM) services explicitly tailored for pipeline and facility projects in the oil and gas industry.

Lauren's SCM solutions are critical in material sourcing, supporting essential functions, and ensuring alignment with client specifications and industry standards. With a focus on meeting client needs, Lauren also provides procurement support for any specific model required for project success.

TEAM OBJECTIVES

- Contribute to the project's profitability by obtaining materials and services that meet the specified requirements at the lowest life cycle cost
- Identify resources required to manage procurement activities for the project, with emphasis on any critical or long lead items
- Provide scheduling, cost estimating, financing, and risk assessment input
- Assist with budgetary pricing efforts during FEED
- Ensure all goods and services for the project represent the best value for the project and that they are attained through qualified/vetted suppliers
- All goods and services are source per the client's business principles and agreed-on project-specific requirements
- All documentation for construction, operations and maintenance is provided on time

SUPPORTING SERVICES

- Perform full procurement cycle including:
 - Prepare a project-specific procurement plan
 - Perform pre-qualifications
- Negotiate directly with suppliers on pricing and delivery and re-numeration
- Expediting
 - Coordinate shop inspections and inspection releases
- Logistics
 - Transportation studies
- On-site material receiving
- Purchase orders
- Change orders
- Invoice attestation
- Auditing

Ph. 403.920.8615

laurenservices.com

LAUREN
Engineering & Project Delivery